Mr. Thomas L. Walsh parol

Chicago 14, Illinois

Dear Mr. Walsh:

Mr. Allen W. Dulles, Director of Central Intelligence, has asked me to acknowledge and thank you for your letter to him dated 21 November 1960, commenting on his recent address on International Communism (excerpts of which appeared in the Reader's Digest), and asking for additional information on that subject. There are of course many thoughtful and informative articles and books that deal with the realities of the Communist menace, and I am enclosing a list of a few selected references which you might find particularly useful.

I am also enclosing the full text of Mr. Dulles' recent address which you mentioned, along with another address by him on the same subject, some months earlier.

Thank you for your interest in writing.

Sincerely,

/s/

Stanley J. Grogan
Assistant to the Director
